THE NEW YORK SKYLINE WILL START TO LOOK A LITTLE DIFFERENT THIS YEAR, AS NEW LUXURY CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS EMERGE FROM THE CONCRETE. HERE ARE FIVE TO KNOW.

▼ THE D'ORSAY

The Meatpacking District inspired the look of these luxury residences, arriving in April. “We worked with the surrounding architecture to recreate a language between the old buildings and the d’Orsay,” French architect and designer Jacques Garcia says of the tower’s brick-and-glass exterior, exposed-metal beams, bronze walls and dramatic lighting. thedorsay.com
